LETTER FROM LEADERSHIP

Dear Friend,

We believe in the remarkable power of compassion to bridge divides and foster understanding in a way that logic alone cannot. This innate human response to suffering compels us to act. At Heartland Human Care Services (HHCS), we are privileged to not only alleviate immediate hardship but also to empower survivors with the tools and training necessary for self-sufficiency and prosperity. Our mission is to equip individuals with the resources, skills, knowledge, and opportunities to make independent choices and achieve their goals.

Rooted in a history dating back to 1888, we've experienced unique challenges along the way. Fiscal year 2024 posed a new challenge, separating from Heartland Alliance to become an independent organization. While this presented a unique difficulty, it also offered opportunities to sharpen our strategic focus, deepen partnerships, and build a sustainable infrastructure.

We are grateful that our vital mission continued uninterrupted throughout this transition, thanks to the dedication of our experienced team. Today, we remain steadfast in our commitment to the work ahead and deeply appreciate your continued support as we strengthen and grow our enduring organization.

David Sinski
Chief Executive and Vision Officer

REBECCA'S STORY

Rebecca (name and image changed to protect privacy) was referred to us for financial coaching. When she started, she was unemployed, had no savings, and faced credit history challenges, making it difficult to qualify for credit. Her initial goals were to build emergency savings, improve her credit, and begin saving for retirement.

With financial coaching, Rebecca transformed her financial situation. She secured a well-paying business development job with benefits and enrolled in her workplace retirement plan, contributing enough to receive her employer's 6% match. She gained financial knowledge, resolved her credit issues, and increased her credit score to 730. She saved $200 in her high-yield savings account. Her retirement account grew by over $4,000, and her HSA by more than $3,000. Her family purchased a home, and they effectively managed their new mortgage.

Rebecca aims to complete her MBA, buy an investment property, and bring her mother to the U.S. Through this process, she has gained the confidence and skills to continue building wealth.

Despite initial communication challenges, he actively engaged with his case manager during the housing search and was successfully housed. Within 30 days, George secured employment with his case manager's support and has since maintained it, built savings, and demonstrated significant personal growth. He is now prepared to independently maintain his housing after exiting the program, no longer requiring financial assistance.

TRAVELERS AID CHICAGO

10,716 Participants

Travelers Aid Chicago (TAC), a program rooted in a global legacy of helping passengers in crisis since 1851, provides vital resources, referrals, crisis intervention, and protective travel services at Chicago's O'Hare International Airport, supporting vulnerable travelers by offering guidance and support to help them create a safe, viable plan to reach their destination. In addition to more than 10,000 participants, an additional 959,000+ travelers were provided information and directions.

MAKE-A-WISH FAMILY ASSISTANCE STORY

A distressed Make-A-Wish Foundation passenger, whose flight was canceled, urgently needed medical supplies from her checked luggage for a family member in a wheelchair.

A TAC agent escorted the family to the baggage office. After several hours, the bags were located, and crucial supplies were retrieved.

The family's initial rebooking for the next morning included an inaccessible hotel shuttle. TAC worked with the airline to secure a new flight and then escorted the family through check-in, security, and directly to their gate, allowing the family to continue their wish trip without losing another day.

REPATRIATED MINOR STORY

TAC assisted a 17-year-old U.S. citizen orphaned in China, who was returning to Chicago.

Partnering with International Social Service (ISS), TAC navigated complexities with Chinese and U.S. authorities regarding the minor's arrival date.

Despite pre-arrival planning limitations with child welfare authorities, TAC ensured a state social worker was present upon the repatriate's 4:30 AM arrival at O'Hare, successfully transferring him into their care.

His first English tutor praised his dedication, noting his persistent effort despite physical limitations.

Now in his 70s, Kendi recently began computer literacy classes at HHCS to enhance his job prospects. He also attended ESL Civics/Citizenship classes, practicing mock U.S. naturalization interviews, and proudly achieved his goal of becoming a United States citizen. As he recently commented, "Finally knowing how to speak English gives you access to all the doors to different areas of life."

NOAH'S STORY

A Post Release Services (PRS) case manager assisted Noah (name and image changed for privacy), a two-year-old Unaccompanied Child released from Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR) care.

Noah's biological father was his sponsor, and his 18-year-old mother, also recently released from ORR, was present. During a home visit, the family's significant need for resources became apparent. The PRS case manager leveraged her knowledge of local resources to provide benefits information on special supplemental nutrition programs for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC), and local food pantries.

Over six months, the PRS case manager connected the family to WIC, affordable medical services, and discounted prescription medications. By the end of the service period, the family was self-sufficient in navigating community resources.

Edward (name and image changed for privacy) joined the Supporting Education and Employment Development (SEED) program in fall 2023, graduating in early fall 2024.

Despite facing housing insecurity and unstable work, he remained diligent. Initially, a tow truck job didn't offer proper employment verification or flexible hours to allow him to attend programming regularly. After sessions with his job coach, Edward secured stable employment with an accommodating company that provided what he needed to meet program requirements. At the end of 2024, his expungement was successful.

Edward's dedication to rebuilding his life led to remarkable progress, and he is now scheduled to take a test to become a Correctional Officer. Edward expressed immense gratitude for the SEED program and its staff, crediting them for the opportunity, for never giving up on him, and for delivering on their promises.
